

Icelandic for Beginners Fall and Spring Semesters

I- 103 ICEL Icelandic for beginners
Lecturer: Sigríður Kristinsdóttir, MSc in applied linguistics. Schedule: Lecture and group activities for 10 weeks Learning Objectives: To develop simple conversational, reading, and writing skills to introduce the basic structure of Icelandic as well as increasing the cultural awareness of the participants. At the end of the course participants should have the ability to participate in simple everyday conversations as well as read and write simple texts. Description: The course is intended for those with little or no knowledge of Icelandic. Main emphasis will be on the basic grammar structures and vocabulary used in common everyday situations. Attention is paid to making the classes productive with much interaction between students and teacher.	Year of Study: All (available for all Schools) ECTS: 6 (3 credits) Level of course: Beginner Language: English/Icelandic Course period: Fall and Spring every year

